society6 x PANTONE®

Aiming to redefine how neutrals are perceived, the exclusive Joybird x Pantone collaboration empowers you to embrace refined tranquility and indulge in what makes you happy through fabrics that are both aspirational and accessible.

Spoonflower's partnership with Pantone for the Pantone Color of the Year 2025 brings together the authority in color and the authority in surface pattern design. Four distinguished Spoonflower Independent Artists have unveiled exclusive designs for print-on-demand wallpaper, fabric, and home decor—bringing Color of the Year to life. The creativity continues in January with two Spoonflower Pantone Color of the Year 2025 Design Challenges.
